MATCHING

ACCOUNTING

SAMPLE STORY

A 14-person CPA firm in Ohio closed tax season two weeks early.

CLIENT	MATCHED IN	RETURNS HANDLED	SEASON CLOSED
CPA firm	3 days	420	-14 days

The challenge

The firm had lost two seasonal preparers in January and had 420 individual and small-business returns due by April 15. Hiring locally would take six weeks they didn't have.

The match

Their brief asked for UltraTax experience, CPA review on every return, and four hours' overlap with Eastern time. Galacticbuzz sent three verified firms within 48 hours. They interviewed two and chose Clearbooks Global.

The result

- Six preparers onboarded in 9 days, working inside the firm's own UltraTax and portal.
- All 420 returns filed by April 1, with zero e-file rejections.
- The firm kept the team for year-round bookkeeping.

"We had three good options on Thursday and a team working by the next Friday. The scorecard saved us a week of reference calls."

ABOUT 1 · Our story.

Home / About

Good firms are hard to find. We fix that from both sides.

US businesses struggle to find outsourcing partners they can trust. Good outsourcing firms struggle to reach those buyers. Galacticbuzz sits in the middle and does the research neither side has time for.

FOUNDER STORY TO SUPPLY

ABOUT 2 · How we work: three research-first principles.

• HOW WE WORK

Research first. People check everything.

Rules before volume

Every search starts with written rules: size, funding, sector, who’s already in the seat. A company that breaks a rule is out, however good it looks.

Every rejection explained

We keep a log of what we rejected and why. Clients see it, so they can trust what made the list.

Evidence on every row

Each verdict links to its sources: job posts, funding news, company directories, LinkedIn.

ABOUT 3 · Team. Real photos only; no stock.

CONFIRM OFFICE LOCATIONS

• VALUES

What we hold ourselves to.

Say no early.

If a firm or a target doesn’t fit, we say so, with the reason.

Show the work.

Scorecards, sources and rejection logs, not just a list.

Both sides win or nobody does.

A bad match costs the buyer and the vendor. We only make the ones we’d stand behind.
